File No. Indus. Relations II/50(R)

Gen. 194 e.

274 B

Legal Department.

The existing wording of rule 72A of the Bombay Industrial Relations Rules, 1947 is not the same as the wording of section 111 (b) of the Bombay Industrial Relations Act, 1946 (Bom.XI of 1947). The words "which in the opinion of the Provincial Government are likely to affect the matters specified in clause (a)" i.e. the industrial matters covered by the schedules, occurring in section 111(b) give very wide powers to Government to require the employer to maintain particular records. But in the absence of similar words in rule 72A, the rule has become limited in scope. It is, therefore, necessary to bring the wording of the rule in line with the wording of ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ section 111(b) by making a specific reference to the record of industrial matters specified in clause (a) of section 111 as suggested in this Department U.O.No. 13876, dated 1st December, 1949 at p.15 ante.

2. A revised draft notification proposing necessary amendments in the rules is sent herewith.
